What's Happening in Second Grade

March is Women's History Month

Reading - This week, Mrs. Burroughs's reading group students will share the puppets they created from the novel, The Littles. My group will also read a passage about Amelia Earhart and answer comprehension questions. All students will begin reading Penguin Chick from our reading anthologies with the target skill being 'Main Ideas and Details' and spiraling the skill, 'Cause and Effect'.

Religion - We will continue preparing students for 1st Communion.

Language Arts - We will work with phonics skills using the -er, -ir, -ur phonograms. Students begin work on a super-fun, Superhero Writing activity. This week, our class will also begin reciting our memorized poems to the class!

Poem of the Week - If I Was a Superhero

Spelling Words - (r-controlled words) - cracker, master, offer, nurse, burst, surf, hurt, dirty, shirt, thirsty ~ Challenge words - waterproof, slippery

Math - We continue chapter 4, 'Subtract 2-Digit Numbers.' Students will use the skill of regrouping a ten as ten ones in 2-digit subtraction

Science - Time will be spent finishing our study of animals with and without vertebrae.

Homework:

Monday - Study spelling words and work on memorizing your self-selected poem

Tuesday - Work on memorizing your self-selected poem

Wednesday - Spend time with your family: go for a walk; play a game; or bake cookies!

Thursday - Math lesson 'My Homework' pages (front and back)
