What's Happening in Second Grade

Happy first day of Spring on Thursday! 🌻

Reading - This week we will read a fantasy fiction story titled, 'Dex: The Heart of a Hero.'

🐾 Students will answer the lesson's essential question: What makes someone a hero? Our target skill this week is reviewing compare and contract.

Language Arts - Later in the week, we will begin our superhero creative writing assignment.

Spelling Words (words with or/ore spelling) - story, morning, glory, fork, short, score, forget, store, corn, boring

Challenge Words - superhero, March

Poem of the Week - 'If I Was a Superhero' by Sally Gray

Religion - We will continue preparing students for 1st Communion by reading a chapter in our religion book titled, 'Listen to God's Word.' In this chapter students will learn about how we hear God's message in the Bible readings during the Liturgy of the Word. 🏰

Math - We begin our measurement chapter this week. Students will use their ruler to measure objects in inches, feet and yards. 📏

Social Studies/Language Arts - Students will put together a small nonfiction book report. This will be done at school.

Homework

Monday - Spelling sheet (double sided)

Tuesday - Reading Bags - read aloud to an adult for at least 20 minutes.

Wednesday - Perform an act of service - fill out the 1/2 sheet coming home today

Thursday - 'Measure the Height' and 'Measure the Length' math sheet (double sided)

Be sure you are marking your March reading calendar.
