

2A Weekly News

Information / Reminders

- * No Star ★ Student this week.
- * Today, Mid-Trimester reports were sent home. Please be sure to look this over with your child and celebrate their successes and discuss the areas for growth. Keep the report at home and send the signed envelope back to school.
- * This Thursday, our school will have our first Faith Family get together of the school year.
- * No spelling test this week.
- * Friday, there is not school for students. Teachers will be attending a retreat.

What's Happening in Second Grade

Reading - Students this week will ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text. They will identify the central idea, or main topic, and relevant details of a multi-paragraph text. Students will be asked to use text features such as captions, bold print, and subheadings to locate information in a text.

Language Arts - We'll begin learning how to use commas in a series and spend more time combining sentences using the word AND. We will hone our sentence writing craft by composing "Pumpkin Sentences".

Poem of the Week: Ghost Questions

Math - This week we will focus on adding within 100 using place-value strategies and a hundred chart, using an open number line to add tens and ones to 100, and choose strategies to add two-digit numbers, using prior understanding of basic addition facts, and various pictorial and concrete representations.

Religion - We will spend more time working on our Rosary lapbooks.

Second Step - Students will take part in the archdiocesan Circle of Grace lesson. Information about this went home last week.

Social Studies - This week, we will answer the question, 'How Are Communities Different?' while reading about 🚗rural, 🏙urban and 🏡suburban communities. We will take what we learn and create a bullseye diagram of each community.

Homework

- Monday - Science Spin, "Cute or Creepy?"
- Tuesday - Reading Book Bag
- Wednesday - Additional Practice math sheet (both sides)
- Thursday - No homework! Have a nice, long weekend
